

1. Title: WE DID IT, WE SAILED ACROSS THE PACIFIC OCEAN!! - (Episode 6/6)
2. Description: A raw and emotional account of the moment that we had been waiting for, for so many.
3. Total Distance: 2,855 nautical miles
4. Duration: 19 days and 10 hours at sea
5. Boat: Lagoon 450
6. Challenges Faced:
 - Hurricane damage
 - Broken bulkheads
 - Struck by lightning twice
 - Strongest and fastest Lagoon 450 on the planet
7. Journey: From Mexico to French Polynesia, part of circumnavigation
8. Crewe: Colin and crew of Par Revival
9. Sailing Conditions:
 - Calm seas, easterly winds
 - Weather condition closely monitored using radar
 - Watch routines and lookout for squalls and other boats
10. Routine Activities:
 - Checking fresh produce for spoilage
 - Dogs' business on dog mat
 - Meal planning for the crew
 - Dishwashing with saltwater and freshwater
 - Editing videos and posts for followers
 - Daily logs of distance traveled and weather conditions
11. Emotional Moments:
 - Overcoming challenges and celebrating successes
 - Arrival at Fatu Eva in the Marquesas Islands

- Tears of joy and gratitude for the crew and the journey

12. Final Stats of Crossing:

- Average Speed: 6.12 knots
- Diesel Used: 13 liters
- Motored for 4.5 hours
- Distance Traveled in 24 hours: 173 nautical miles
- Fresh Water Consumed: 1,300 liters
- Total Watches: 59
- Boat Casualties: 1 spear, 1 solar panel

13. Experience:

- Smooth Pacific crossing with minimal casualties
- Years of boat preparation and planning paid off
- Ecstatic to reach the destination and showcase it to viewers

14. Future Plans: To continue circumnavigation and share more adventures

15. Closing Thoughts: Gratitude for the journey, the crew, and the unforgettable experience.

16. Conclusion: A journey of resilience, teamwork, and accomplishment across the vast Pacific Ocean.